TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE

Postman, Remote -

Solutions Architect, JUN 2024 - Present

After transitioning back from an extended Parental Leave at Postman and rejoining a customer-facing team, I was responsible for:

- Driving value and adoption of Postman by assisting customers to understand how collaborating in Postman can solve their business and API-related needs.
- Collaborating with Sales and Customer Success to identify outreach targets to drive expansion opportunities.
- Guiding customers along their API journey via education, technical consultation, and general enablement to help them achieve their development and business goals.

Senior Developer Advocate, AUG 2022 - JAN 2024

After transitioning into the Student Programs team at Postman, I was responsible for:

- Scaling student programs in the AEMEA region by nearly doubling the number of program ambassadors in a single fiscal quarter.
- Creating efficient end-to-end internal processes by using a technical admin tool (ReTool) to create shared dashboards which automated operations like sending external emails and updating data sources.
- Creating views into external issue handling data to help my team meet and improve Service Level Agreements (Zendesk).
- Managing social media presence for Student Programs by hosting livestreams on Youtube, Twitch, and LinkedIn, targeting students and educators with over 15k impressions in the first 6 months of launch.
- Leading in-person and online workshops + sponsoring hackathons, converting over 2k student viewers per quarter into campus product advocates..
- Preparing student ambassadors in the AEMEA region to lead their own product-led workshops. Supporting the initiatives of over 30 students in the AEMEA region in less than 6 months.
- Developing project-based learning courses to promote the company's vision of API literacy through an LMS (SkillJar).
- Producing written internal and external educational content through Confluence and blog articles.
- Engaging with developer communities at in-person events, in online forums, through Zendesk, and on Discord.
